

Roberta Joppi

Roberta Joppi is a Clinical Pharmacist. She was awarded her Chemical Pharmacy degree, with a specialization in Clinical Pharmacy, and a Master in Systematic Reviews at Milan University.

1993-2000: Clinical pharmacist in the Pharmacy Department of the following Hospitals: Regional Hospital in Bolzano, Regional Hospital in Rovigo, University Hospital in Verona (Performed activities: management; head of the scientific secretariat of the Therapeutics Committee; head of the scientific secretariat of the Ethics Committee; drug compounding; radio pharmacy; drug information).

September 2000 -2010: Clinical Pharmacist in the Pharmaceutical Department of the Local Health Unit in Verona (Performed activities: drug utilization research; clinical research in primary care; information on drugs and medical devices; ; member of the local Ethics Committee; responsible for clinical research activities of the Regional Drug Centre – Veneto Region.

January 2011 - present: Head of the Clinical Research & Drug Assessment Unit of the Local Health Unit in Verona.

January 2003 – present: Visiting Scientist at the Centre for Health Regulatory Policies of the "Institute for Pharmacological Research Mario Negri-IRCCS", Milan.

She is responsible for the "Italian Horizon Scanning Project" and Chair of the International Information Network on New and Emerging Health Technologies EuroScan (<https://www.euroscan.org/>) and member of the Piperska Group – rational prescribing (<http://www.piperska.org/>).

Her main areas of interest have been drug assessment, epidemiology of interventions, clinical trials and drug utilization studies, mainly but not only, in the cardiovascular and psychiatric areas.